

Tonight's menu

Starter

Burrata With Grilled Grapes & Basil

Grilled grapes? Sounds amazing, and it is. Combined with burrata (which means "battered" in Italian) makes a great combo

Main Course

Red Wine Braised Short Ribs With Lemongrass And Soy

This is the dish that the chef Marcus Samuelsson made for President Obama when he visited the restaurant Red Rooster Harlem. Braised meat is always magical

Mashed potatoes

No description needed. Braised short ribs require a subtle and not too intense side dish

Tomato salad with lime and cardamom yoghurt

In this salad the sweet, sour and salty notes are all combined thanks to the properly ripe, wonderfully sweet tomatoes

[Vegan] Roasted Asparagus With Almonds, Capers and Dill

If eggplant is the king, then the asparagus is the queen of the vegetables. Often underestimated, it really shines in this dish

Dessert

Vanilla custard with strawberries

Simple and delicious
